Library Updates:

*The Friends of the Library book sale is still scheduled for the 3rd weekend of September. Location will be changed to (most likely) Crossroads Church. If your organization would be willing to help move boxes from storage to the sale site, please let us know.

*I plan to resume Wigglers on September 2 at 10:30. Initially we will meet in the backyard. If the weather is rainy, it will be cancelled for that day.

*STEAM will resume on September 3. It will also be scheduled at 10:30. This is for all ages. If we end up with too large of an age difference we will revisit the time schedule.

*We are currently looking for a part time library assistant. This is a 10 hour per week job. If I am on vacation or at a conference, then it will be more that week. Applications are available at City Hall.

*As always, if you have ideas or suggestions, please feel free to let me know.
